INFO!

Food - Full hot and cold canteen on site both days provided by Irishtown Lions Club.

Other trials - Irishtown: June 19 & 20; Shediac Bridge: August 21 & 22nd. For entries or info please check our website.

Accommodations - For a complete listing of motels/hotels, bed & breakfasts, and campgrounds that will accept dogs please visit: www.gomoncton.com

Attendance Draw - Anyone who enters all 3 fame trials for the entire weekends will have their name entered in a draw for a free weekend entry in one of our 2011 trials.

Junior Handling - We are offering a Junior Handling class at our trials. Junior Handlers must apply to the AAC. Forms are available on their website <http://www.aac.ca/>. For more info please see our website.

Youth Handling - We are now offering a Youth Handling price. Youth Handlers run the same classes/levels as regular competitors, but to encourage younger competitors (max age of 18) we are offering a discounted price of $8 per run. Simply indicate below if you are a youth handler and calculate your classes at $8 instead of $13.

New competitors - Please see our website for a checklist of what to bring and what to expect.

Volunteers - Your name will be entered in a draw for a $25 gas card as well as various prize draws throughout the weekend.

Security - There will be security for Friday & Saturday night.

Pictures - Jules Comeau and Wendy Price will be taking pictures at select trials. Check out their websites at www.kaleanophoto.com and www.wprice.zenfolio.com respectively to view and purchase pictures.

2. The trial is open to all dogs over 1-1/2 years except bitches in heat, dogs suffering from injuries or dogs showing signs of aggression.
3. All dogs must be registered with the AAC and have a valid ID number in order to compete in this trial. Forms are available at <http://www.aac.ca/>.
4. There will be no refund of entries withdrawn after start time or in the event the dog or handler is dismissed from competition.
5. PLEASE DO NOT LITTER AND PLEASE USE DESIGNATED AREAS FOR YOUR DOGS AND THEN POOP AND SCOOP.
6. No familiarization will be offered.
7. Confirmation letters will be emailed. It is the competitor's responsibility to report any errors or omissions right away. Please ensure that you verify your entries as soon as you receive your confirmation.
8. Dogs that qualify on day one can advance to the next level on day two only.
9. Ribbons will be awarded throughout the day.
10. Field surface: Grassed and fenced.

TITLING CLASSES: Starters is for dogs that have not obtained the Agility Dog of Canada (ADC) title. Advanced is for dogs that have obtained an ADC. Masters is for dogs that have obtained the Advanced Agility Dog of Canada (AADC) title. Specials is open to all dogs. However, once a dog competes in a Specials titling class, it may no longer compete in any other agility class than Veterans. Veterans is for dogs whose age is 7 years for dogs currently competing in regular agility or 5 years for dogs that have competed in Specials for one calendar year. A dog may no longer compete in any other agility class than Veterans once entered in an official trial in any Veterans class.
